Inquiries to the Commission should relate only to the accreditation status of the institution.

Haywood Community College issues this catalog to furnish prospective students and other interested persons with information about the school and its programs. Announcements contained herein are subject to change without notice and may not be regarded as binding obligations to the College or to the State of North Carolina.

Curriculum offerings are subject to sufficient enrollment, with not all courses listed in this catalog being offered each term. Course listings may be altered to meet the needs of the individual program or academic division.

Upon enrolling at Haywood Community College, students are required to abide by the rules, regulations, and student code of conduct as stated in the most current version of the catalog/handbook, either hardcopy or online.
(See front section of the catalog/handbook.)

For academic purposes, students must meet program requirements of the catalog of the first semester of attendance, given continued enrollment (fall and spring). If a student drops out a semester (fall or spring), the student follows the catalog requirements for the program of study in the catalog for the year of re-enrollment. (See back section of catalog for program requirements.)

This publication is not a contract nor offer to contract. The Board of Trustees, college executive officers, and their agents reserve the right to change information herein without notice when circumstances warrant such action. All charges for tuition and fees are subject to change, as required by the North Carolina General Assembly and the College's Board of Trustees.

Haywood Community College is committed to equality of educational opportunity and does not discriminate against applicants, students, or employees based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disability, affiliation, or belief. The College supports the protection available to members of its community under all applicable Federal laws, including Title IV and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Sections 799A and 845 or the Public Health Service Act, the Equal Pay and Age Discrimination Acts, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and Executive Order 11246.

From the President

Welcome to Haywood Community College, the college where your goals can become reality. Students frequently tell me that they initially selected this college because of its programs and outstanding reputation and that they stay because of HCC's caring faculty and staff. Your success is foremost in our minds-. We want to see you realize your dreams and goals.

This college considers you, the student, as its reason for existing. Great attention is given to every detail from student advising to instruction to graduation. You are a member of the college family whether you are attending classes on campus, by internet, or from another location. It is my desire and that of my associates to make your educational experience meaningful.

There are many educational options from which to select. The Associate in Arts degree prepares one to transfer as a junior to a North Carolina public university or to enter other colleges and universities through individualized agreements. More than 50 programs prepare graduates for employment or advanced education in occupations ranging from health care and natural resource management to professional crafts and residential construction, to name only a few. As you review the list of program options in this catalog, imagine the world of opportunities that awaits you plus the college promotes creativity, entrepreneurship and sustainability and invites you to learn more about them.

Experience the college. The dedication and support of every employee is at your fingertips.
