DUAL ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT

This agreement entered into between Haywood Community College (HCC), the Haywood County Consolidated School System (School System), and _____.
(Student)

In consideration of student enrollment and attending a dual enrollment course at HCC pursuant to agreement between HCC and School System; student does hereby agree and authorize the exchange of all information between HCC and School System in regard to student's class attendance, class performance, grades, discipline, and any other pertinent school records and information necessary for HCC and School System to evaluate, grade, assess, discipline, or otherwise take any other appropriate action consistent with HCC and School System's policies, provisions, statutory authority, and requirements as they may affect or pertain to student.

Student acknowledges that the foregoing exchange of information is necessary and required for a dual enrollment course, and hereby releases any and all right to privacy and confidentiality under any local, state, or federal law which would otherwise prevent the exchange of said information between HCC and School System, and specifically authorizes the same.

HCC and School System agree to exchange said information in a reasonably prompt manner, and further agree to maintain the confidentiality and privacy of any information received by the other, except as may be authorized by local, state and federal law.

This the _____ day of _____, 20____.
